

PMM

PUBLIC MANAGEMENT

MARCH 2004

VOLUME 86 □ NUMBER 2

INTERNATIONAL CITY/COUNTY
MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION

Cover photo by Troy C. Whitman

COVER STORIES

4 Rising from the Ashes: Lessons Learned from the Southern California Wildfires of 2003

It's never too soon for managers to review their local government's fire management system to make certain it covers fundamental issues. Oliver Chi, Arcadia, California

10 San Bernardino County's Part in California's Fire Siege 2003

Long-term, advance planning is a key factor in one local government's "from the trenches" account of last year's California fires
John Goss, San Bernardino County, California

FEATURES

16 Is There a Democratic Deficit in the Free Trade Agreements?

What are the implications of free trade agreements for local governments? Mildred Warner, Ithaca, New York, and Jennifer Gerbasi, Washington, D.C.

22 Officer-per-Thousand Formulas and Other Policing Myths

What does it take in your community to achieve public safety goals? John Campbell, Portland, Oregon; Joseph Brann, Palos Verdes Peninsula, California; and David Williams, Portland, Oregon.

28 50 (and More!) Creative Financing Tools for Local Governments

Part I of a two-part article on how local governments are going about making some extra cash. David Borak, Washington, D.C., and Barry Burton, Lake County, Illinois.

DEPARTMENTS

2 LETTERS

2 PM BULLETIN BOARD

What Is Your Community Best Known For?

3 ETHICS

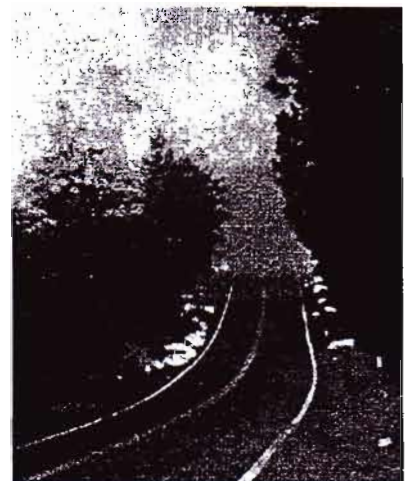

Free Golf for City Officials? ■
Seeing Red over Lobbying Work

33 FYI

2003 Manager Salaries

34 PROFILE

Wally Bobkiewicz, Santa Paula, California

California Fire Siege 2003

