

What: Dinner and Auction

When: September 8, 2007

Where: East County Senior Center, Monroe

Why: The Friends of the NRA support the Sky Valley by supporting youth gun safety education & equipment and area range development. The Friends also purchased a defibrillator for the police department. Working for education, safety and to keep American rights in a responsible way!

Please join the Sky Valley Friends of the NRA for a night of great food and great fun! To order tickets or for more information please contact Debbie Copple at 360-793-0983 work, 360-793-2565 home or email to copplefamily@comcast.net