Sultan Council Honors Police Officers

Sultan, WA - On Thursday, May 8, 2008, from 6:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m., Mayor Carolyn Eslick and the Sultan City Council will recognize Sultan police officers in honor of National Law Enforcement Officer Appreciation Day. The public is invited to join the Mayor, City Council and Sultan police officers for dessert and coffee at the Sultan Community Center located at 319 Main Street, Sultan.

"This event is the community's way of showing appreciation to Sultan's dedicated police officers for the outstanding work and service they provide," said Mayor Eslick.

Following the event at 7:00 p.m., Mayor Eslick and the Sultan City Council will proclaim Friday, May 8, 2008 as "Police Appreciation Day." The community is encouraged to show appreciation to Sultan's law enforcement officers. Community support and recognition are shown in many different ways including wearing or displaying blue ribbons, offering a smile to an officer and letting them know their efforts are appreciated.
